NEWS RELEASE

2009 Raglan Project Exploration Update

Vancouver, British Columbia – Resolve Ventures Inc. (“Resolve”) is pleased to announce that Resolve has commenced a 2009 exploration program for nickel-copper-PGE sulphides on its property in the Raglan Belt, northern Quebec.

Resolve will be following up on previous airborne remote sensing and geophysical results and carrying out a program of prospecting, rock geochemical sampling and the geological evaluation of likely target areas across the property.

Field crews, consisting of a team of prospectors and geologists, mobilized to the area in late August and will continue the planned field program until about mid September.

ON BEHALF OF THE BOARD:

(signed) “David Baker,” President
